The City of Ruston begins Long-Range Planning Process

RUSTON, LA – On October 15, 2008, Mayor Dan Hollingsworth will hold a press conference to discuss the launch of “Ruston 21”, the City’s community planning process. Hollingsworth will address ways in which citizens will benefit from and participate in Ruston 21, including the timeline, key areas of focus, and Community Visioning Day on November 11. Upon conclusion of Hollingsworth’s speech, Ken Tipton, Tipton Associates, will further explain the goals and objectives of Ruston 21, and the role that his team will play in the planning process. At the conclusion of Tipton’s remarks, general questions from the public will be taken by Hollingsworth and Tipton. Other city staff will be available to field questions and comments if necessary.

This event is open to the public and the press is encouraged to attend. The press conference will begin at 11:45 am and end promptly at noon at the front entrance to City Hall, 401 N. Trenton Street, Ruston, LA.
